

Year 4

Dear students and parents,

We've reached the last week of term. (Week 3 of home learning) I won't set any work for the next two weeks. Have a break and we'll recommence on Monday, 27th April.

I hope you have a happy Easter break with your family.

Best wishes,

Sue Dwyer

Tricky joins – Joining to s

To make your writing faster, s can be joined from top finishing letters using a horizontal join.

Go right across the top of the s, then retrace the top of the s before heading down.

os ^{retrace}

Trace, then copy.

os os os os os os os os os os

Trace then copy these words.

first hose claws verse huffs

s can be joined to other letters using a diagonal join. Later on you'll learn a tricky new way to join s diagonally. But practise this one for now.

as ^{retrace}

Trace, then copy.

as as as es is ks ls ms ns ts

Trace then copy these words.

ask hands cakes isn't music

Amazing Adjectives

An adjective, you may have heard,
Is what we call a "describing word".

Adjectives are describing words. They are used to describe nouns (naming words).

For example: a blue jumper, a neat room.

Choose the adjective from the box which best completes each joke.

flat empty tired broken hungry longest

- Is it unhealthy to do maths on an stomach?
No, but it's more sensible to do it on paper.
- What do budgerigars have for breakfast?
Tweetbix.
- Why did the mechanic go to sleep under a car?
He wanted to get up "oily" in the morning.
- What is the word in the dictionary?
Elastic, because it stretches.
- What did the pencil say to the pen?
I've got a headache!
- What's the best thing for feet?
A foot pump.

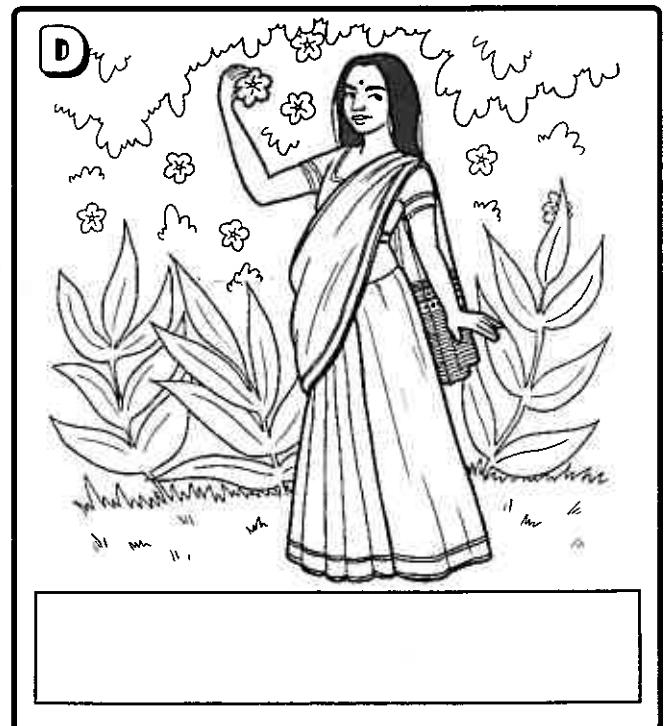

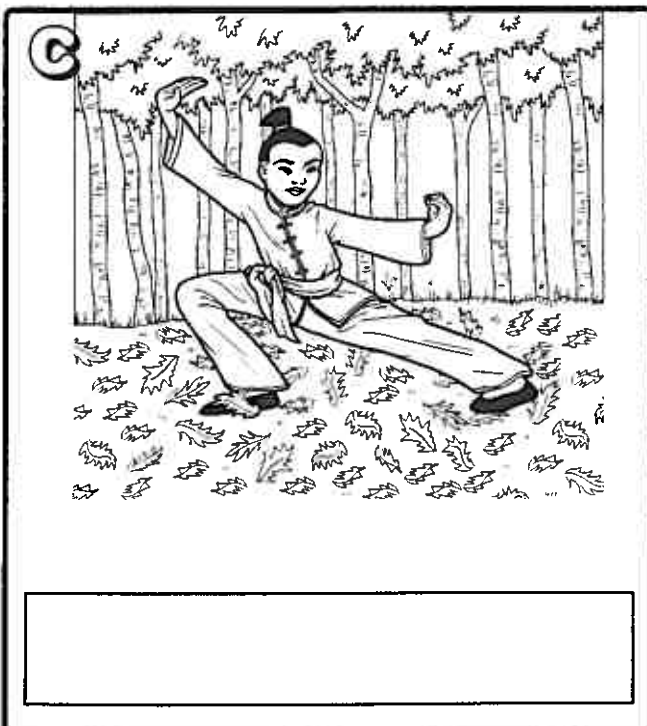

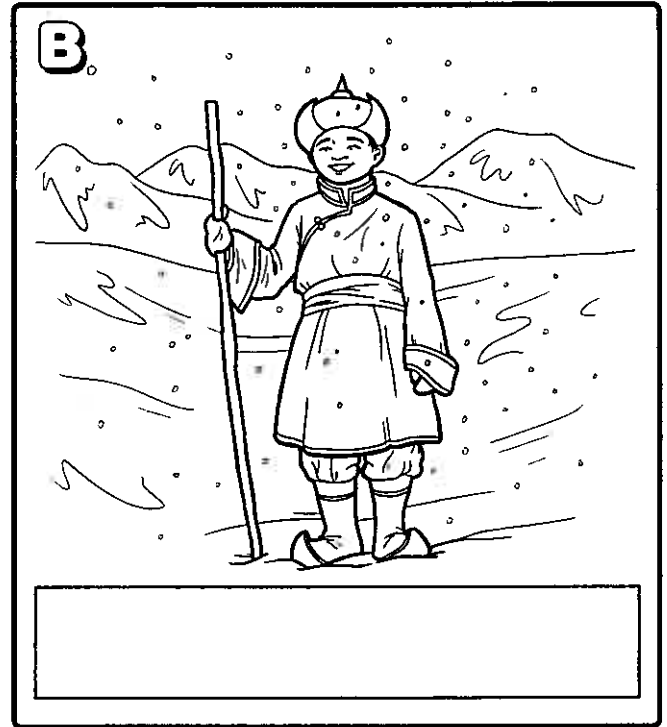

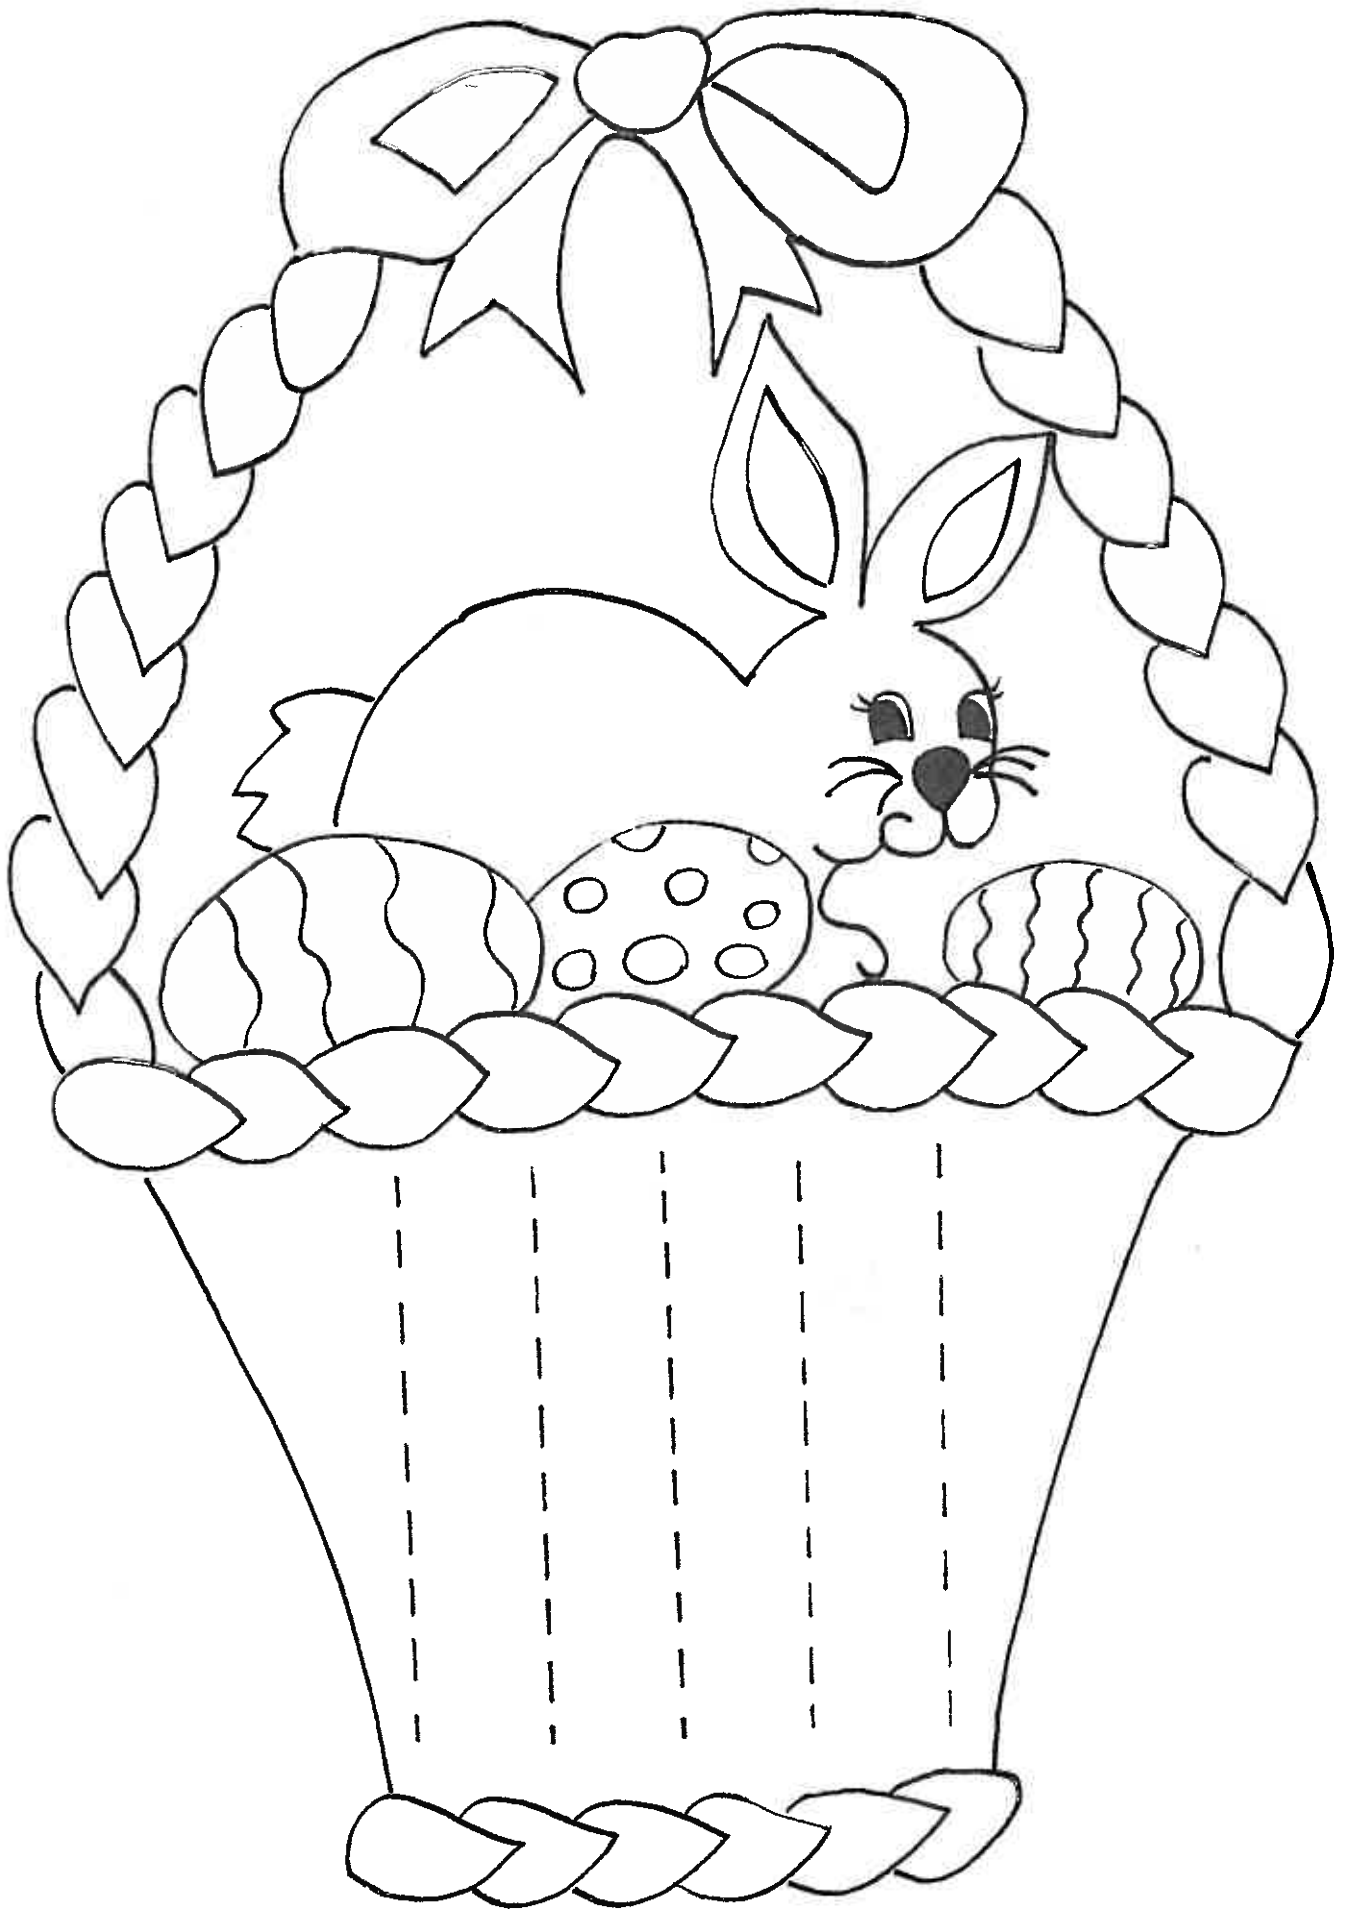

ASIA

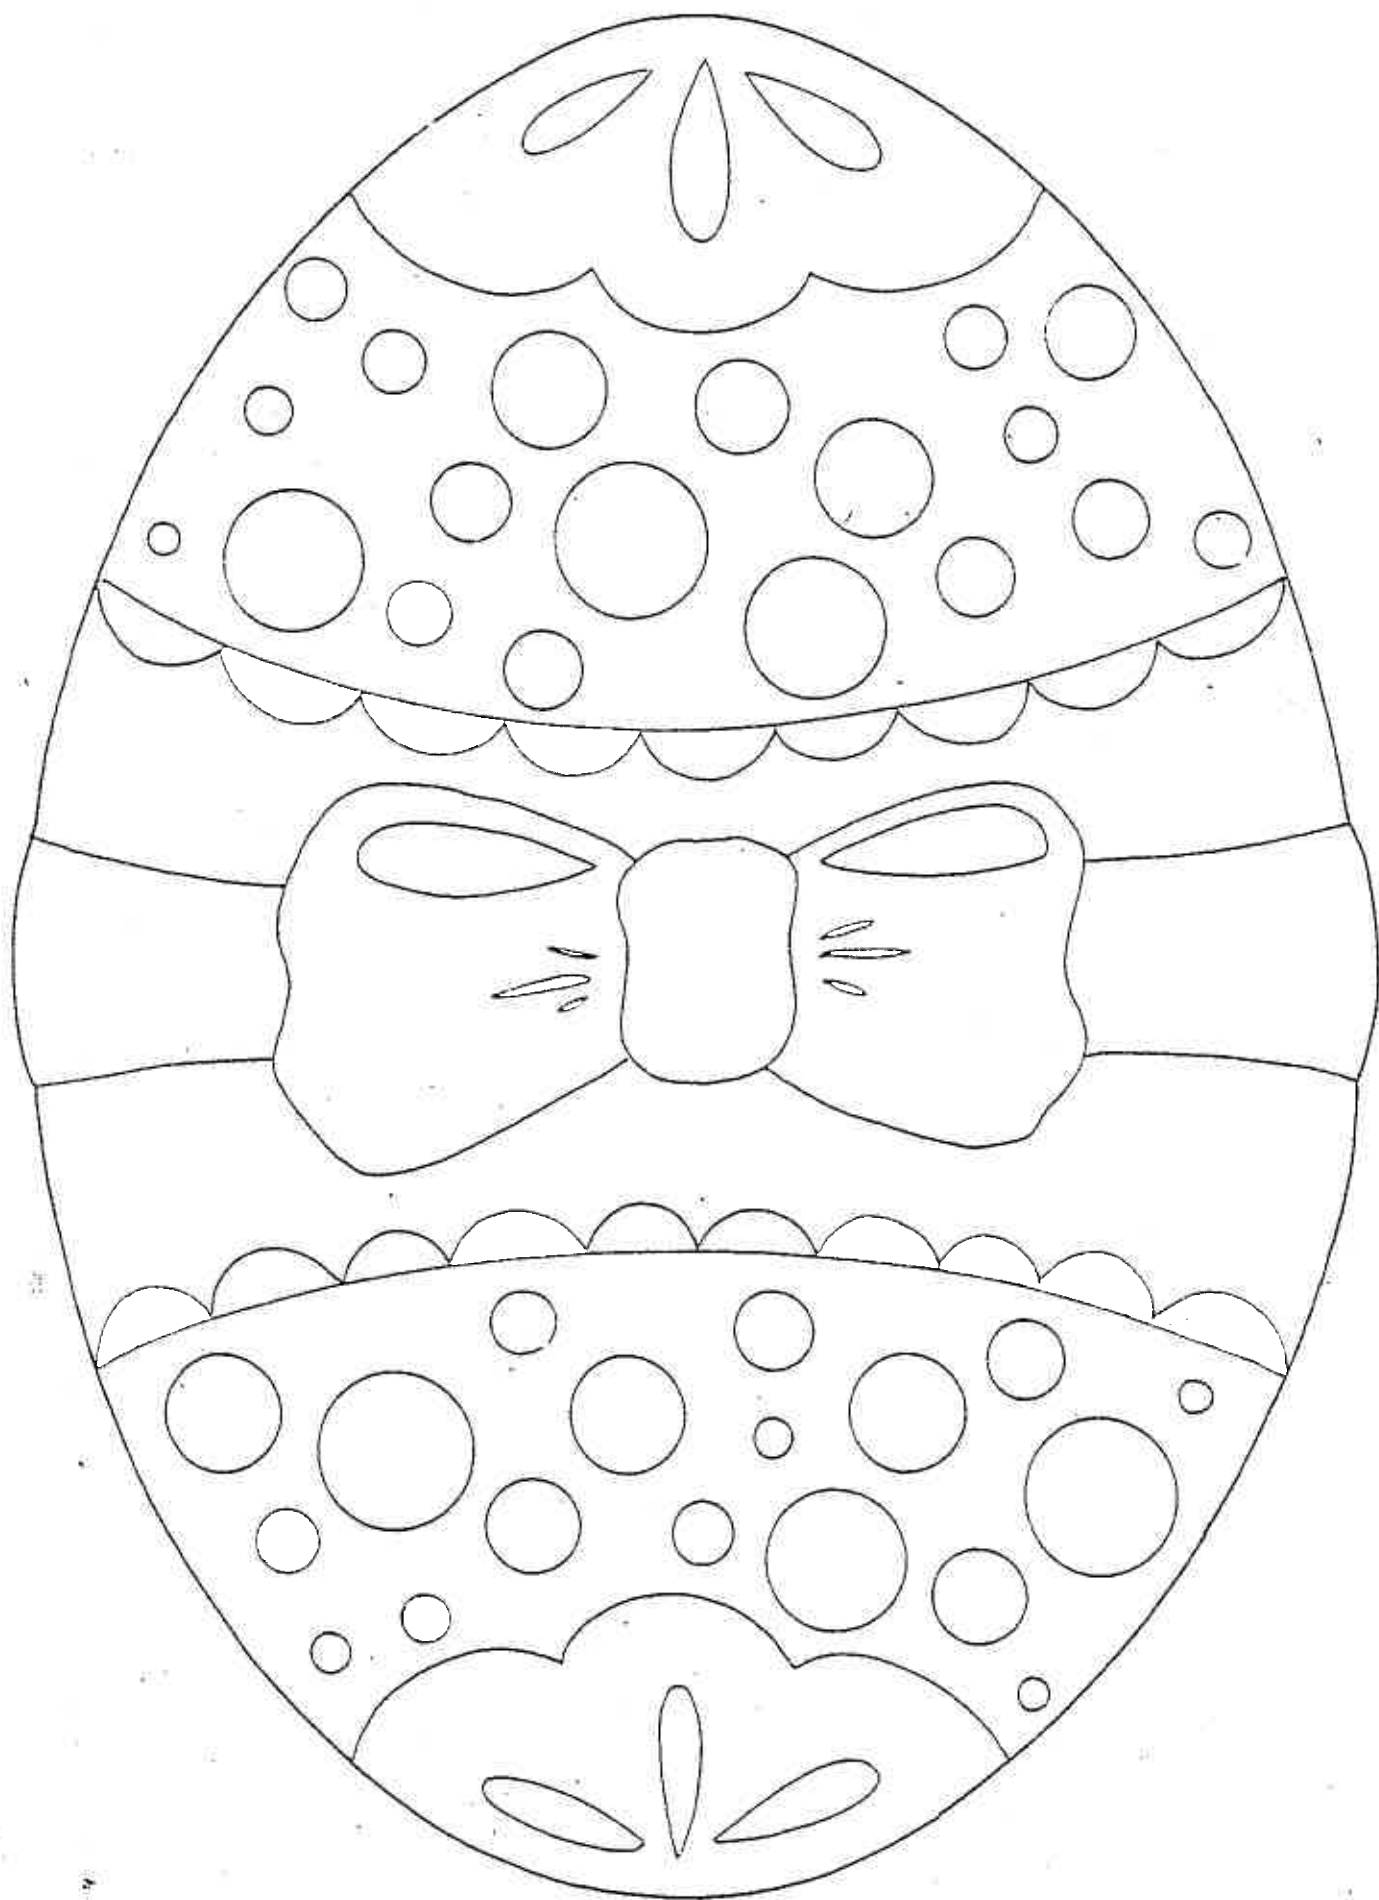

Traditional Dress

- There are over 50 countries in Asia and so how people dress in Asia is very different. Many Asian countries have traditional dress. Use the words in the box to describe the dress of each person pictured.

Indian sari dress Japanese geisha in kimono
Mongolian traditional dress Chinese martial arts dress
